Fifteen-year-old Greta Thunberg decides she can't wait any longer: politicians have to do something to save the environment. Instead of returning to school, Greta takes a placard and goes on strike in front of Sweden's parliament building. This book has been selected as it links to the geography and science unit for this half-term.	 Greta and the Giants – This book presented in a fictional style, tells the story of Greta Thunberg and her fight to save the world. It will be used alongside the Greta's Story core non-fiction book and aims to provide the children with an understanding that important and key messages, can be portrayed in different contexts.  Dear Earth – When Tessa writes a love letter to the Earth, it's the beginning of a glorious adventure. She blows bubbles with whales, soars with birds and joins in with the noisy rainforest hullabaloo!	See Summer 1.	 Respect  Perseverance

			 Old Enough to Save the Planet – Our planet is precious and it's up to us to take care of it. Linked to the focus non-fiction book centred around Greta's story, this book reinforces the message that even if you feel small, your small actions can make a big difference. This book will teach children that by acting with kindness towards other people, plants, animals, and yourself, you can help to protect the planet.	Tessa wants everyone to know how special our planet is. She believes that there is a chance to save the Earth if enough of us share the message. This book will be compared to Greta's Story.

PSHE - How does Discrimination Affect us? A		Another classic must-read, which links to the geography unit for this half-term. Brothers Damian and Anthony didn't mean to get caught up in a botched train robbery. But what would you do if a massive bag of cash dropped from the sky and you had only a few days to spend it before it became worthless? The boys soon find out that being rich is a mug's game. Not only is the clock ticking, but the bank robbers also want their money back . . .	Having some money in your pocket can be exciting and when it's used as a force for good, those pennies have the power to change the world. However, managing money can seem daunting. This book has been selected to build the children's confidence around money and ensure they look toward the future. It has links to previous PSHE units covered around money and links to the geography unit for this half-term,	Dylan oversees the petrol log in Manod and that means he gets to keep track of everyone coming in and out of the area. When a mysterious convoy of lorries trundles up the misty mountainside towards an old, disused mine, even Dylan is confounded. Who are these people and what have they got to hide? Dylan embarks on a quest to find out. This book has been selected, as it is another action-packed book by Frank Cottrell-Boyce and the children can compare and contrast strategies used to develop action and suspense.  Rooftoppers – A book by Katherine Rundell, who is focussed on in Year 5, when the children read and study The Explorer.
